Dear Kate:

Thank you for your letter of March 24th. I am indeed sorry that you do not feel that you could accept the Presidency of our Southeastern Chapter for the coming year.

I know that you are very busy and am sure that you have made your decision with your usual conscientiousness. I just hope that you will be able to find the time in the near future to assume an office in the chapter.

With kindest personal regards, I am,

Yours very truly,

Harriet L. French
